

trading in these kind of birds, the training of these kind of birds, the capture of these kind of birds, that we know what kind of birds we are actually talking about.

PRESIDENT: Senator Higgins, please.

SENATOR HIGGINS: Thank you, Mr. President. I would just like to make a point to Senator Johnson, and that is this, never believe everything you read in the newspaper, Senator. Thank you, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: Senator Pappas, would you like to close on the advancement of the bill.

SENATOR PAPPAS: I don't know. I'm getting a fluttery about this. (Laughter.) Section 1, subparagraph (7), it defines what is exempt, the golden and bald eagles, in the bill. I would be more concerned if I didn't...if we hadn't worked very close with the Game and Parks Commission and the National Falconry Association and this wasn't modeled after national and other state legislation. So, presently I am very comfortable with the bill. If anybody wants any further questions answered between now and Select File, I would be more than glad to get the proper people from the Game and Parks and/or the falconry people themselves to sit down and visit with them. But I ask for the advancement of this bill.

PRESIDENT: The question is, shall the bill fly to E & R Initial? All those in favor vote aye, opposed.... Record, Mr. Clerk, please.

CLERK: 27 ayes, 2 nays, Mr. President, on the motion to advance LB 154.

PRESIDENT: LB 154 is advanced. LB 171.

CLERK: Mr. President, LB 171 was a bill that was introduced by Senator Lamb. (Read title.) The bill was first read on January 9, referred to the Natural Resources Committee. There are committee amendments pending, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: Senator Lamb, please.

SENATOR LAMB: Mr. President, members, the committee amendment to this bill really has nothing to do with the thrust of the bill as introduced. It is merely a convenient way for the Game